To-Do Checklist

Reading

☐ You will be reading introductory course materials as well as Chapter 4, "Normal and Exceptional Development", in your text The Exceptional Child: Inclusion in Early Childhood Education as well as the “Preface” and “How to Use this Book” of Children With Special Needs in Early Childhood Settings.

Web Resource:

☐ Your reading will begin with the course syllabus. Then, in the text, you will read about social problems in our society and three perspectives that provide broad frameworks that are foundational to more specific theories about social problems.

Discussions

☐ Children are constantly changing as they grow and develop. This week, you'll discuss the many kinds of developmental differences in children and give examples of the characteristics of these differences.

Seminar

☐ After you visit the websites required for this week's Web Resource, you will share your reaction with your classmates to what you have learned on these sites.
